The conference is initiated and supported by National Academy of Science of Ukraine for the purpose of coordination of the research, the exchange of information about newest advances in the area of the research, production and application of nanodimensional systems and nanomaterials. The conference affords an opportunity to discuss new results and envelops major aspects of given problem: fundamental, applied and technological.

SESSION TOPICS

The reports on given topics will be considered at the conference:

- [1] size-effects and self-organization of nanostructures and nanosystems;
- [2] structure and properties of low-dimensional systems;
- [3] metal- and carbon-based nanomaterials;
- [4] semi-conducting nanosystems and nanostructures;
- [5] films, coatings and surface nanosystems;
- [6] biofunctional nanomaterials, nanosystems in biology and medicine;
- [7] supramolecular structures, aerogels, colloid systems;
- [8] diagnostics and modelling of nanostructures and nanoimentional systems;
